Twelfth Sunday after Pentecost

GUESTS AND VISITORS: Welcome to Holy Cross and to today's worship service. We are glad you are here! Please register your attendance in the Fellowship Book in the pew (be sure to include the name of any children with you today). We invite you to come and worship with us again. If you have any questions, or have an interest in joining Holy Cross, please speak with Pastor or one of our Elders.

We Are Humbled and Exalted by the Cross of Christ

"Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled," Jesus proclaims, but "he who humbles himself will be exalted" (Luke 14:11). For your hope is in the name of the Lord, who humbled Himself unto death on the cross and was exalted in His resurrection. So, are you humbled by His cross, and "at the resurrection of the just," He will say to you, "Friend, move up higher" (Luke 14:10, 13–14)? By His grace, the King will honor you "in the presence of a noble," where your eyes will gaze upon the Prince, His dearly beloved Son (Prov. 25:7). As He has dealt so graciously with you, "do not neglect to do good and to share what you have" (Heb. 13:16), and "do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers" (Heb. 13:2). Humble yourself and exalt your neighbor.

Opening Sentences

pg. 32ff

P: O Lord, open Thou my lips.

C: ♪ And my mouth shall show forth Thy praise.

P: Make haste, O God, to deliver me.

C: ♪ Make haste to help me, O Lord.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,

The Invitatory and Venite

P: Oh, come, let us worship the Lord:

C: ♪ For He is our Maker.

♪ Oh come, let us sing unto the Lord:
let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation.
Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving:
and make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms.
For the Lord is a great God:
and a great King above all gods.
In His hand are the deep places of the earth:
the strength of the hills is His also.
The sea is His, and He made it:
and His hands formed the dry land.
Oh, come, let us worship and bow down:
let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker.

For He is our God:
and we are the people of His pasture, and the sheep of His hand.
Glory be to the Father and to the Son:
and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Psalm: Psalm 75:1–2, 6, 9; antiphon: v. 7

It is God who executes judgment,

putting down one and lifting up another.

We give thanks to you, O God; we give thanks, for your name is near.

We recount your wondrous deeds.

At the set time that I appoint

I will judge with equity.

For not from the east or from the west and not from the wilderness comes lifting up.

But I will declare it forever;

I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son

and to the Holy Spirit;

as it was in the beginning,

is now, and will be forever. Amen.

It is God who executes judgment,
putting down one and lifting up another.

Hymn:

“Lord Jesus Christ, We Humbly Pray”

Hymn 314

Old Testament Reading: Proverbs 25:2-10 (ESV)

²It is the glory of God to conceal things, but the glory of kings is to search things out. ³As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the heart of kings is unsearchable. ⁴Take away the dross from the silver, and the smith has material for a vessel; take away the wicked from the presence of the king, and his throne will be established in righteousness. ⁶Do not put yourself forward in the king’s presence or stand in the place of the great, ⁷for it is better to be told, “Come up here,” than to be put lower in the presence of a noble. What your eyes have seen ⁸do not hastily bring into court, for what will you do in the end, when your neighbor puts you to shame? ⁹Argue your case with your neighbor himself, and do not reveal another’s secret, ¹⁰lest he who hears you bring shame upon you, and your ill repute have no end.

P: But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

C:  Thanks be to Thee, O Lord.

Epistle Reading: Hebrews 13:1-17 (ESV)

¹Let brotherly love continue. ²Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for thereby some have entertained angels unawares. ³Remember those who are in prison, as though in prison with them, and those who are mistreated, since you also are in the body. ⁴Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled, for God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterous. ⁵Keep your life free from love of money, and be content with what you have, for he has said, “I will never leave you nor forsake you.” ⁶So we can confidently say,

“The Lord is my helper; I will not fear;
what can man do to me?”

⁷Remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God. Consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. ⁸Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever. ⁹Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings, for it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited those devoted to them. ¹⁰We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat. ¹¹For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp. ¹²So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood. ¹³Therefore let us go to him outside the camp and bear the reproach he endured. ¹⁴For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come. ¹⁵Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. ¹⁶Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

¹⁷Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they are keeping watch over your souls, as those who will have to give an account. Let them do this with joy and not with groaning, for that would be of no advantage to you.

P: But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

C: ♪ Thanks be to Thee, O Lord.

[please rise and face the Pastor in the center of the nave, a sign of Christ's presence among His people]

Holy Gospel: Luke 14:1-14 (ESV)

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. Luke, the fourteenth chapter.

¹One Sabbath, when [Jesus] went to dine at the house of a ruler of the Pharisees, they were watching him carefully. ²And behold, there was a man before him who had dropsy. ³And Jesus responded to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath, or not?" ⁴But they remained silent. Then he took him and healed him and sent him away. ⁵And he said to them, "Which of you, having a son or an ox that has fallen into a well on a Sabbath day, will not immediately pull him out?" ⁶And they could not reply to these things.

⁷Now he told a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the places of honor, saying to them, ⁸"When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in a place of honor, lest someone more distinguished than you be invited by him, ⁹and he who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Give your place to this person,' and then you will begin with shame to take the lowest place. ¹⁰But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when your host comes he may say to you, 'Friend, move up higher.' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at table with you. ¹¹For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

¹²He said also to the man who had invited him, "When you give a dinner or a banquet, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you in return and you be repaid. ¹³But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, ¹⁴and you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you. You will be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

P: But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Receipt of Gifts and Offerings

Pause to Ponder

Luke 14:11 – “For whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.” The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: that’s called humility. The Lord is God and we are not. With that in mind, how could we not seek to follow His Word in all aspects of life? He knows what He is talking about and we don’t. If you believe that, then striking out on a path of faithfulness in the realm of stewardship is a lot easier: it just makes sense.

The Prayers of the Day

Let us pray for the whole Church of God in Christ Jesus and for all people according to their needs.

Heavenly Father, through the humiliation of Your Son, You have called us to a place at Your heavenly table. Teach us to treasure this place of honor, and so to spurn the foolish honors of this world. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Lord God, our Shepherd, sustain the pastors of Your Church in their sacred charge. Establish them in Your stead, make their life of faith worthy of all honor and imitation, and inspire their hearers to honor You by honoring them. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

O Lord our God, at the creation of Adam and Eve You instituted and blessed marriage as the lifelong union of a man and a woman, and You commanded that it be held in honor by all, as a sacred sign of Christ and His Bride, the Church. Grant Your blessing, therefore, to all husbands and wives, and to all who have pledged themselves to be united in holy matrimony according to Your Word, that their lives together in Your name may be sanctified by Your Holy Spirit in all wisdom, purity, self-sacrifice and love. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

God of justice, You exalt the humble and humble the proud in Your own appointed time. We commend to You the elected officials of our land. Grant them the desire to govern as though serving, and give them wisdom and courage to know what is right and to follow it. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

O Lord, grant peace and healing according to Your will to the sick, the suffering, those troubled in mind, those suffering depression, and those with chronic illness and pain especially Karen, Linda, Alvina, Leslie, Jerrell, Jeanette, Lisa, Calvin, Whitney, Zelda, Robert, Loretta, Evelyn, Helen, Jo Ann, and all those whom we lift before You in our hearts now. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Merciful God, You call on us to practice brotherly love, to show hospitality to strangers and to remember all those in need. We come to You confident that You will not leave us nor forsake us, but will grant us all that we need for this body and life. Bestow on us the full riches of Your grace for all the situations and circumstances in which Your people dwell. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayer.

Remembering that here we have no abiding city but that heaven is our home, give us Your aid, that we may by true faith and godly life prepare for the coming of our Savior, multiplying Your mercy by loving our neighbor in need and loving You with all our body, soul, strength and will; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Kyrie

pg. 39

♪ Lord, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us.

The Lord's Prayer

P: Taught by our Lord, and trusting in His promise, we are bold to pray:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven; give us this day our daily bread; and Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

The Salutation

pg. 40

P: The Lord be with you.

C: ♪ And with thy Spirit.

The Collect for Grace

P: O Lord, our heavenly Father, almighty and everlasting God, who has safely brought us to beginning of this day, defend us in the same with Your mighty power and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger, but that all our doings, being ordered by Your governance, may be righteous in Your sight; through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

C: ♪ Amen

The Benedicamus and Benediction

pg. 40

P: Bless we the Lord.

C: ♪ Thanks be to God.

P: The grace of our Lord † Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost be with you all.

C: ♪ Amen.

Closing Hymn: “Savior, Again to Thy Dear Name We Raise” Hymn 47

Postlude

Outreach Thought

Luke 14:1-14: The Scriptures tell us that the Pharisees were watching Jesus very closely. They were watching Him to find mistakes, for any reason to criticize, to see if He could pass their test. Jesus was watching them very closely, and even though they were acting like enemies, Jesus was looking upon them with love. As we look upon the world, we need Jesus' eyes to be able to see the world with His love and compassion. That's the labor of love the Lord has given to us as we share the Good News each and every day. Jesus enables us to see the world differently: with grace. As He equips us with the Good News to share, may the Spirit also equip our eyes and hearts with the ability to recognize those who need the Good News the way Jesus does.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bible Class - WHAT IS WORSHIP? It's the quintessential activity of Christians throughout history. It's a lens through which the entire Bible can be explored and understood. It's been the backdrop for some of the most beautiful music ever composed, and for some of the fiercest arguments ever fought...Join us as we delve into the Scriptural basis for worship; as we walk through the history and tradition that led to the views of worship espoused in the Lutheran Confessions; and as we study the ins and outs of our own liturgy so that Sunday mornings will make more sense! If anything about worship has ever made you scratch your head, join us! Answers (as well as coffee and snacks) are always free!

The Wednesday night Bible Study group will begin a new study on the book of Joshua, starting Wednesday at 6:30 in the fellowship hall. Joshua is a great book, providing us with the details of what happened to Israel after their 40 years of wandering in the desert when God finally let them enter and take possession of the Promised Land. The first session will view a series of short videos covering the first 5 books of the Bible to get us caught up with what has already happened in Israel's history so we can jump right into Joshua. If you are interested in participating in this study (which should conclude by Thanksgiving), please contact Cyndy Zoch at cyndyzoch@gmail.com or 979-966-3166 so that we can make sure to have materials for you.

Picnic Updates: Auction items can be brought to the church office through Thursday; after that, they will need to be taken to the picnic grounds. Also, the Ladies Aid is taking pre-orders for sides. A sign up sheet is on the bulletin board this morning or you can call Cyndy Zoch at 966-3166 or the church office at 242-3333 to place your orders.

GEMS: The LWML Post Oak Zone is excited to be starting a GEMS group! GEMS stands for Girls Embracing Mission Service, and will focus on serving others and supporting mission work. All girls 5th-12th are welcome to join! We will meet the final Sunday of each month at 2:00 in the afternoon at Holy Cross Lutheran Church in Warda. Our first meeting will be Sunday, August 28, and we will be making baskets to take to nursing home residents. Moms are always welcome too! Please mark your calendars and plan to join us for fun, fellowship, and service!

Fried Chicken Dinner: The St. Paul Lutheran Church Adult Fellowship in Serbin are having their 25th annual fried chicken dinner on Sunday, September 11th from 10:00-12:00 at the Serbin Picnic Grounds. Preorders are preferred; all plates are to-go and will be sold for $12.00. If you would like to order plates please contact Susan Michael at 540-0854 or Sharon Claxton at 540-7154 by September 5th. All proceeds will be going toward future church/school projects. Thank You!
